Welcome to our fourteenth bulletin of the First Actuarial Monkey Euros 2024. During the tournament, we will be giving you regular updates on the latest happenings from Germany, and the current standings in our competition to ensure you're all aware of how well (or not!) you're doing.

Spain 2 – 1 France

This match may well go down as the match when Lamine Yamal truly announced himself on the world stage. The 16-year-old had already impressed in this tournament, but his display last night was super sweet. La Roja overcame adversity after Les Bleus took an early lead courtesy of a Randal Kolo Muani header from a Kyllian Mbappe cross. However, Spain's guile and class soon showed when Yamal bobbed and jinked with the ball before unleashing a 25-yard curling effort that went in off the post to level the scores. Postage stamp.

Just minutes later, Spain demonstrated their attacking flair again when Dani Olmo carefully crafted a chance that he duly finished off, despite attempts from Jules Kounde to clear.

The second half offered more chances for both sides, but Spain looked as if they had too much for a French side, who despite reaching the last four, will feel disappointed by their tournament performance overall.

The result seals Spain's spot in the final in Berlin on Sunday and with six successive wins scoring a tournament high 13 goals, it would be hard to bet against them.
