

Bulletin 5 – 21 June 2024

Welcome to our fifth bulletin of the First Actuarial Monkey Euros 2024. During the tournament, we will be giving you regular updates on the latest happenings from Germany, and the current standings in our competition to ensure you're all aware of how well (or not!) you're doing.

Slovenia 1 – 1 Serbia

A 96th minute equaliser from former Real Madrid forward Luka Jović denied Slovenia their second ever win at a major tournament in Munich yesterday afternoon.

Slovenia pulled ahead courtesy of Žan Karničnik midway through the second half. Serbian hopes of qualifying were kept alive nearly half an hour later through Jović's header in the dying minutes.

Both teams enter the final game of the group with something left to play for*, with Serbia facing Denmark and Slovenia facing England on Tuesday evening.

**That is, unless Serbia carry out their threat to withdraw from the competition after some unsavoury chanting during the match between Croatia and Albania.*

Denmark 1 – 1 England

An underwhelming performance from England saw them squander the opportunity to secure their place in the knockout stages, after giving away a 1-0 lead against Denmark.

Harry Kane put the Three Lions ahead, which in turn seemed to be the cue for Gareth Southgate's side to turn into three rather timid kittens*, as has too often been the case. Just 15 minutes later, Morten Hjulmand pulled the De Rød-Hvide level (note from the author, I definitely didn't just google that nickname).

Phil Foden's effort came closest to putting England back ahead, with a shot bouncing off the post shortly into the second half. While England will still be favourites to qualify, they will need to up their game if they want to progress much further in the competition.

Spain 1 – 0 Italy

A dominant Spain secured their place in the knockout stages, despite an impressive shift by Italian goalkeeper Gianluigi Donnarumma.

Spain looked comfortable throughout and managed to restrict Italy to just three touches in the opposition box in the first half, without a single shot on target.

An own goal after the break from Riccardo Calafiori mean that Italy have it all to play for in a tough game against Croatia on Monday. Spain face Albania in their final group stage game.
