

Bulletin 7 – 25 June 2024

Welcome to our seventh bulletin of the First Actuarial Monkey Euros 2024. During the tournament, we will be giving you regular updates on the latest happenings from Germany, and the current standings in our competition to ensure you're all aware of how well (or not!) you're doing.

Croatia 1 – 1 Italy

The defending champions left it late to seal qualification to the last 16 in Leipzig. In the 98th minute, Italian defender Riccardo Calafiori burst through the heart of Croatia to set up Mattia Zaccagni who ultimately broke Croatian hearts with a superb curling effort. Zaccagni's strike cancelled out Luka Modric's instinctive finish just after he had missed a penalty. It leaves Croatia unlikely to qualify as a best-placed third team following two draws and a loss in this tournament.

Albania 0 – 1 Spain

Spain became the first team to record maximum points in the group stages (incidentally, neighbours Portugal are the only other side who can achieve this). A solitary goal from Barcelona striker Ferran Torres in the 13th minute was enough to confirm Albania's exit in what was a very tough group for The Red and Blacks (or the Kuqezinjtë). Spain are also yet to concede in the tournament, which by my maths, gives them a very good chance of going all the way if they can keep this up over the next few weeks!

England qualify but (so far) not in style

"I don't need to listen to externals because I'm my own biggest critic and I think most of the players are as well." exclaimed Gareth Southgate after widespread criticism of England's opening two results. Tonight's final group game against Slovenia is a time where The Three Lions can put things right.

Results

Hugo Berry extends his lead above Aaron Love following an impressive 19 points out of 20 yesterday.

John Small was the only player with two maximum scores last night and moved up 19 places in the process. A disappointing -3 points sees Emma Robinson fall from 26th to 61st position.
